Professor Ira G. Martin,
Kingston.

Dear Professor Martin:

It was very kind of you to ask me to stay with you while I am in Kingston and I have much pleasure in accepting your invitation. I expect to leave on Wednesday evening by the Grand Trunk train in time for the ceremonies that evening, but I will write you later.

With kind regards, I am,
Yours sincerely,

President.

ROYAL MILITARY COLLEGE OF CANADA

Kingston, Ont.

Nov 5th 1919

My dear Sir Robert-

I am hoping to be in Toronto on Friday and to attend the dinner to Professors Baker & Ellis. Which fact I would appreciate it very much if you could facilitate an interview with Prof Dobson or some one who would be able to put me in touch with a possible candidate for the Mathematical position now vacant on our staff.

With kindest regards I am

Yours Sincerely

Ivan C. Martin
